

Speech Language Pathologist and Cognitive Rehab Therapist

About the position

This is an exciting and unique full or part-time clinical opportunity to help diagnosis and treat cognitive and language disorders in outpatients with neurodevelopmental, acquired and traumatic brain injury, as well as, neurodegenerative disorders. You will join a team of experts in diagnosing and treating cognitive and language disorders. You will be responsible for conducting diagnostic intakes and administering cognitive, language, behavioral and functional measures. You will also be responsible for treating patients across the age span with the opportunity to specialize in treating patients with specific disorders. Consultation and liaison work with schools, other institutions and clinicians is also incorporated into the full-time positions.

Qualifications

At least 3 years experience in testing and treating patients with cognitive disorders. We offer training on a wide range of different diagnostic tests and platforms, as well as, neurocognitive rehabilitation interventions. The candidate must also be licensed or licensed eligible in NJ and have a Medicare or be eligible for Medicare provider number.

Salary and Benefits

Competitive salary with quarterly bonuses, paid sick, vacation and holidays and other benefits available such as major medical and dental.